

BOURGOGNE HAUTES-CÔTES DE NUITS PRIMEUR

JUICY COMBINATION OF STRUCTURE AND SEDUCTION. A GREAT INTRODUCTION TO BURGUNDY.

TASTING

The nose is floral, mineral and fruity (strawberry) with an underlying hint of menthol. Full-bodied, silky and well structured without any harshness. Warm finish with notes of vanilla and candied fruit.

FOOD MATCHING

Serve this wine with red meats, simply prepared small game, or mild cheeses.

TERROIRS

With their calcareous clay soil (Jurassic rocks), our Hautes-Côtes de Nuits vineyards are located on a plateau behind the famous Côte de Nuits at an altitude of between 300 and 400 metres. Exposure varies from south to east, allowing the vines to benefit from maximum sunlight. Les Dames Huguettes is a wine produced from grapes selected from the best terroirs of the Hautes-Côtes area that have particularly good exposure. As a result, this wine has a mineral profile but is also bursting with freshness and generosity.
