

163d HOSPICES DE BEAUNE AUCTION – NOVEMBER 2023
TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR ONLINE SALES

PRIOR NOTICE

This document is a translation of our official Terms & Conditions, called “Conditions Générales de Vente 2023”, which are the rules that apply for this sale, and which can be obtained from Jean-David CAMUS. This document is here to help you understand the official French Terms & Conditions.

PROTECTION OF UNDERAGE BUYERS

As per the articles L3342-1et L3353-3 of French public health laws, selling alcohol to underage buyers is forbidden. So only people aged more than eighteen (18 years old or the minimum legal drinking age in their country of residence have the right to order online our products. Alcohol abuse is dangerous, please enjoy our wines responsibly.

OBJECT

Maison Albert Bichot, located 6 bis boulevard Jacques Copeau, 21 200 Beaune - FRANCE, organises through its website www.hospices-beaune.com a system allowing people to

- buy with Albert Bichot several wines (also called Cuvées) from the Hospices de Beaune estate at the Hospices de Beaune auction in November 2023. The 2023 vintage will be sold en primeur (as futures).
- entrust Albert Bichot to age for 12 to 16 months in average and then bottle those wines in Albert Bichot’s cellars in Beaune, until they are ready for shipping in autumn 2025.

GENERAL RULES

Wines are sold in bottles of 75 cl by default. They are packaged in cardboard box for bottles sold by the unit and in wooden case for wines sold by multiples of 3 or 6 bottles of the same wine.

Prices and quantities are subject to confirmation by Albert Bichot before the order is considered as definitive. The buyer agrees to be 18 years old minimum when it orders online, or of the minimum legal age in its country of residence.

Products are sold within a limited stock quantity. If products sold are eventually out of stock, Albert Bichot will contact the buyer and refund the order quickly. Prices are in Euros (€) including VAT applicable at the order date. Any change in VAT rate might be applied to the products prices. Albert Bichot reserves the right to change prices at any time without notice. The price on the online store at the time of order will apply.

KEY PRINCIPLES

As wines are sold at an auction, the final result of the auction and the price of the wine cannot be known in advance. So the principle proposed by Albert Bichot and that each buyer agrees on when an order is placed online is the following:

- The operation is a collective purchase. Albert Bichot will bid on full barrels (288 bottles after ageing) on a selection of 5 wines that are shared with all buyers, sold by 1, 3 or 6 units of the same quality
- For each wine, Albert Bichot sets before the auction a maximum hammer price. This is a ceiling price that we define for all customers and is agreed on when orders are placed online. This maximum price is the same for all buyers who ask Albert Bichot to bid on their behalf. To this maximum hammer price corresponds a final bottle price for the buyer, as defined by a price list making the conversion between hammer price and final bottle price after ageing. The full pricelist is available upon request. An extract of this pricelist can be found below.
- On the online store <https://boutique.hospices-beaune.com/> the final bottle price corresponds to: hammer price + auctioneer fee + barrel + all ageing and bottling costs. It also includes French VAT that the customer will pay for all wines shipped inside the European Union. If the customer is outside Europe, VAT will be removed at invoicing stage (example : USA).
- On the online store prices are with the Incoterm EXW (ex-works Beaune) so our prices do NOT include shipping costs to your country, which will have to be paid separately before shipping. See below for a few examples.
- Please note that excise and duty or other custom taxes linked to the import regulations and laws in your country might apply (example: UK). Prices communicated by Albert Bichot do NOT include such duties and taxes. They will have to be paid directly by the buyers to their local tax representative prior to importation in their country to comply with the local laws.
- It is possible for a customer to come and collect the wines in our Beaune logistics center to avoid paying transport. But in this case French VAT will be added and must be paid by the buyer. This does not remove the obligation for the buyer to comply with the import rules in its country and to pay any customs, duties or any other taxes that are due to be in full compliance of local regulation and wine import laws.
- Albert Bichot propose several options detailed below: custom labels, bottle sizes different than 75 cl
- To confirm its purchase, the customer must pay online a deposit of 80% of total maximum price. This deposit is compulsory and is the proof of the customer engagement.

- Result of the auction: 2 possibilities

1. If Albert Bichot is not successful and cannot buy below or at the maximum hammer price defined, your order is cancelled, and we refund your deposit.
