How to Ship your wine to the USA

the details of our boat option

Your wine is being shipped home legally to you in the United States via Cote d'Or Imports. Here are the details and what happens next:

- Prices include retailer pick up, order verification + preparation, export customs, international ocean freight, US customs clearance and duty, repackaging and US delivery via common carrier (UPS or FedEx). One case cannot mix bottles, magnums and jeroboams (3 L) – those fees are calculated separately and added together to arrive at your total shipping fees. Partial cases will be calculated to the next highest bottle count for billing purposes. You will be receiving e-mails from us when your order has been recorded in our system, if/when your billing account is charged for shipping fees if you have not paid for it at the retailer and when the order is ready to leave France. If you have not heard from us within 3 weeks of order placement, please reach out to us to be sure we have your order in our system – and the correct email address.
- Insurance : These fees cover breakage, loss and wine specific damage like seepage during transit. Please open your cases immediately upon delivery and let us know by e-mail with photos within 36 hours if you have any concerns. Your satisfaction is our number one priority.
- Tariff: A tax of 25% of the wine value is mandatory on all still and effervescent wines (list of taxable wines created October 2019 and updated January 2021). Sparkling wine and few spirits are exempt from this tax.
- Timing: All individual wine orders are grouped together into shipments that depart from France approximately once a month, with more frequent departures in the spring and fall. The shipment is then cleared through customs, processed through our US warehouse and delivered to you via ground delivery. Timing for delivery depends upon when your order is placed, when we receive it in our French warehouse, when your payment has been processed (if fees not paid at the retailer), and when the last shipment departed. Please note we cannot arrange final delivery until you have replied to our confirmation email. Lead times for delivery are estimated from 8 to 10 weeks from the time we have your wines in our possession in our French warehouse.
- Protecting your wines: We are specialists in legally shipping wines. Therefore, we will be taking every needed precaution to avoid any risk of damage during transit due to extreme weather conditions. If this means storing your wines in our temperature-controlled warehouse until weather is appropriate to ship, we will do so free of charge. These options will be presented to you if the situation arises.

Additional details / requirements for certain states (all states are subject to the 25% tariff):

- No deliveries
 - It is illegal under state laws to deliver wine to consumers in KY, MS and UT. If you live in one of these states, please contact us for other options.
- State tax
 - In Alabama, wine must be delivered to a state store for an additional fee of approximately $4 per case of 12 bottles. Under State law, you will pay that fee upon pick up from the state store. We will be in contact with you to determine the most convenient state store for delivery.
 - New Hampshire charges a state tax of 8% of the total value of the wine for direct shipments to consumers. This is to be paid at the winery when you pay for wine, insurance and shipping fees.
- Additional fees for delivery
 - Hawaii requires additional fees of 85 €/case of 6 or 12 bottles.
 - Alaska – shipping is possible for additional fees of 35 €/case of 6 or 12 bottles and delivery possible from June 1st to September 30th. Orders received outside that window will be stored, free of charge in our US warehouse until delivery is possible.
